SERRET

OC-1093-86 13 November 1986

Acting Director of Communications SUBJECT: Weekly Report 2. Because convicted spy Jerry Whitworth apparently had the opportunity to access the intelligence system tasking military assets, a representative from OC met with the Directorate of Operations (DO) during the reporting period to carefully review current procedures for tasking military assets with Agency requirements. The review was prompted by statements resulting from the Walker-Whitworth espionage investigations relative to activities by Whitworth during his assignment as a communications watch officer aboard the USS Constellation.	MEMORANDUM FOR:	Deputy Director for Administration
2. Because convicted spy Jerry Whitworth apparently had the opportunity to access the intelligence system tasking military assets, a representative from OC met with the Directorate of Operations (DO) during the reporting period to carefully review current procedures for tasking military assets with Agency requirements. The review was prompted by statements resulting from the Walker-Whitworth espionage investigations relative to activities by Whitworth during his assignment as a communications	FROM:	Acting Director of Communications
opportunity to access the intelligence system tasking military assets, a representative from OC met with the Directorate of Operations (DO) during the reporting period to carefully review current procedures for tasking military assets with Agency requirements. The review was prompted by statements resulting from the Walker-Whitworth espionage investigations relative to activities by Whitworth during his assignment as a communications	SUBJECT:	Weekly Report
opportunity to access the intelligence system tasking military assets, a representative from OC met with the Directorate of Operations (DO) during the reporting period to carefully review current procedures for tasking military assets with Agency requirements. The review was prompted by statements resulting from the Walker-Whitworth espionage investigations relative to activities by Whitworth during his assignment as a communications opportunity to access the intelligence system tasking military assets, a representative from OC met with the Directorate of Operations (DO) during the reporting period to carefully review current procedures for tasking military assets with Agency requirements. The review was prompted by statements resulting from the Walker-Whitworth espionage investigations relative to activities by Whitworth during his assignment as a communications opportunity to access the intelligence system tasking military assets, a representative from OC met with the Directorate of Operations (DO) during the reporting period to carefully review current procedures for tasking military assets with Agency requirements. The review was prompted by statements resulting from the Walker-Whitworth espionage investigations relative to activities by Whitworth during his assignment as a communications opportunity to access the intelligence system tasking military assets, a representative from OC met with the Directorate of Operations (DO) during the reporting period to carefully review current procedures for tasking military assets with Agency requirements. The review was prompted by statements resulting from the Walker-Whitworth espionage investigations relative to activities by Whitworth during his assignment as a communications opportunity to access the intelligence system tasking military assets, a representative from OC met with the Directorate of Operations (DO) during the reporting period to carefully review current procedures for tasking military assets with Agency requirements. The review was prompted by statements resulting from the Walker-Whitworth espionage investigations relative to activities by Whitworth during his assignment as a communications opportunity to a assets, a repres Operations (DO) current procedur requirements. T from the Walker-activities by Wh	access the intelligence system tasking military sentative from OC met with the Directorate of during the reporting period to carefully review ses for tasking military assets with Agency the review was prompted by statements resulting Whitworth espionage investigations relative to aitworth during his assignment as a communications

SECRET

SECRET

SUBJECT	: Weekly Report
0
8. Technolo new OC e orientat	OC, in concert with the Directorate of Science and ogy (DS&T), has successfully completed arrangements for engineers to participate in career enhancing DS&T technication courses.

